

ProSys designs and builds custom Megasonic cleaning systems for difficult applications. If your process needs to be faster or if you need better process results or higher efficiency, a ProSys acoustic transducer will help.

Features & Benefits

- Designs for tight spaces
- Retrofits into OEM tools
- Can be designed to be used horizontally, vertically, or face up
- Can be designed for submerged operation
- Many options for materials of construction
- Repairable
- Used with the IMPulse RF controller
- Quick-turn designs
- Private labeling available
- Implementation of customer ideas and IP

Technical Specifications

To be agreed upon with the customer.

